THE SOCIAL WORLD.

The Week Just Passed a Pleasant One--Numerous Entertainments for Society People.

MISS CARPENTER'S PARTY

Helena's Dancing Club Furnish Votaries of the Saltatorial Art, a Chance to Display Their Grace and Skill in the Latest Dances.

Society has danced and feasted this week to its heart's content. Many opinions that the opening of the legislature would give a gentle impetus to the rolling of the social ball seem to be verified. The faces of the legislators are becoming familiar in social assemblies. The evenings of the haut ton have been so well occupied with festivities that the empty stage at the theatre has not been noticed. Next week, however, the belles and beaux again take the opportunities offered to inspect the costumes and acting of the thesplan stars. The gowns, by the way, which have been worn at recent festivities by the social belles, have presented more than the usual elegance of material and design. A girl can't help be-ing be witching in the gowns made and worn now-a-days. Helena has been quite conspicuous among the cities of its size in the west-for the tasteful dressing, both for the street and for evenings, of its ladies. A SOCIAL EVENT.

The party at the residence of ex Gov. Carpenter, on Madison avenue, was perhaps the most brilliaht social event of the season in Helena. The elegant new residence was thrown open, the second story apartments serving as dressing, refreshment and smoking rooms. Brilliant lights, crystal, flowers, and tasteful and novel arrangements were seen in all parts of the house. The receiving party, Gov. and rangements were seen in all parts of the house. The receiving party, Gov. and Mrs. Carpenter, Miss Carpenter and Mr. Stephen Carpenter, welcomed the arriving guests. The first floor rooms were devoted to the dancers, the bright toilettes of the ladies, their jewels and happy looks forming pictures not soon forgotten. The supper was served at 11 o'clock. The table decorations of roses were most beautiful, and the fine china and silver, together with the soft wax lights completed the effect. The guests numbered about one hundred and fifty. The governor's family are renowned in their circle for the elegance and cordiality of their hospitality and are to be congratulated upon the perfect success of their reception.

PROGRESSIVE EUCHRE PARTY.

PROGRESSIVE EUCHRE PARTY.

Miss Laura A. King entertained a number of young society people at progressive euchre. The party was in honor of Miss King's gues, Mrs. Charles Duer, of Fort Benton. The first ladies' prize, won by Miss Davenport, was a handsome French plate glass mirror, Stephen Carpenter taking the gentleman's prize a hand painted guitar. The "booby" prizes were a handsome chamois bound copy of "Hoyle," Miss Nettie Chumasero's prize, while Charles McCreary carried off a small wooden scoop, hand painted, with the glit letters "scooped" along the handle. Monday evening Master Howard O'Brien entertained about sixty five young friends at the Merchants hotel, the occasion being his eleventh birthday. The little ones romped and played games, shouted till the house resounded with laughter, and, as they were all of about the age of their little host, had fun galore. Several older friends worked indefatigably to insure a good time. An elegant supper was served about 7 o'clock. The testimonials of affection were numerous and beautiful and Master Howard seemed surprised and much pleased at the berthday gifts showered upon him. About 9 o'clock the little ones took their departure, tired, but looking as if the occasion had been an exceptionally happy one for them.

The residence of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Holter, on Benton avenue, was the scene of a very pretty wedding on Thursday evening. The bride was Miss Bertha Brown, a niece of Mrs. Holter, while the groom was Isaac Mysen, an enterprising young contractor and builder. Rev. F. T. Wath officiated performing the impressive young contractor and builder. Rev. F. T. Webb officiated, performing the impressive Episcopal ceremony. PARLEYINGS.

I hold a shadow's cold, soft hand, I look in eyes you cannot see, And words you cannot understand Come back, as from a distant land— The far-off land of memory.

The hour will pass; the shade will go
To his dark home, and swift forget,
At rest the daised tarf nelow,
The sun-warmed hours we used to know,
And the old paths wherein we met.

I am alive, why should the dead With cold hand hold the quick in thrall? To h a far place the shade has sped— Now Life with Life may gaily wel!

My heart misgives me, after all.

Croup is a terror to young mothers, especially during the winter months as it is then most prevalent. It can always be prevented, if properly treated as soon as the first systoms appear. Hoarseness is the first symptoms; this is soon followed by a peculiar, rough cough. If Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is freely given as soon as these symptoms appear, it will invariably prevent the attack. There is no danger in giving the remedy, as it contains no injurious substance. For sale by H. M. Parenen & Co.

Persons troubled with chronic diarrhoea or subject to bowel complaint in any form, should try Chamberiain's colic, cholera and diarrhoea remedy. Many chronic cases that had resisted all other treatment have been cured by it. For sale by H. M. Par-chen & Co.

Rheumatism is caused by lactic acid in the blood, which Hood's Sarsaparilla neu-tralizes and thus cures rheumatism.
